ABOUT LAURA

Laura Lizcano is a Colombian-born singer-songwriter based in New York. Influenced by artists like Norah Jones, Natalia Lafourcade and Caroline Shaw, Lizcano combines her formal training as a jazz vocalist with her love of folk, pop and contemporary classical music. This combination of styles is evident within her own lyrically-driven compositions.

Lizcano has performed at the Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts and at Dizzy's Club Coca Cola in New York City as the featured vocalist for the Temple University Big Band. She has opened for Gaby Moreno and Sammy Miller and the Congregation at World Cafe Live in Philadelphia. Most recently, she has been featured in the virtual Wawa Welcome America Festival (2020) and Philadelphia's iconic Philly Folk Fest (2020 and 2021). Laura regularly collaborates with Almanac Dance Circus Theatre and has written and performed her original music for two of the company's original shows: Happy Hour (Cannonball Festival 2021, Miniball 2022) and Armor (2021), which was commissioned by and presented at the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

Lizcano's self-released debut EP, Chance on Me (2018), was followed by her first full-length studio album, Heart (2020), now available on all streaming platforms.

Her forthcoming album Daughter of the Sea is slated for release in October 2022.

UPCOMING RELEASE

DAUGHTER OF THE SEA

Written largely during quarantine, Daughter of the Sea is an internal look into Lizcano's life, addressing a wide range of topics from breaking generational traumas and grappling with immigrant identity, to sexual desire and learning radical self-love. Featuring tracks sung in both English and Lizcano's native Spanish, the album is a reflection of her experiences with and feelings of belonging to something bigger than the boxed identities imposed by culture and society.

Lyrically, the album pulls inspiration from some of the greatest singer-songwriters of our generation including Fiona Apple, Mon Laferte and Regina Spektor, while it is influenced musically by the likes of Paul Simon, David Bowie and American composer, Caroline Shaw. The artist's love for classical music is apparent on Daughter of the Sea, with the esteemed Daedalus Quartet performing instrumental interludes throughout the album and providing instrumentation on several key tracks.

"MAJOR TOM" SINGLE + MUSIC VIDEO

In the Bowie-inspired track "Major Tom," Lizcano explores what might have happened to Major Tom once he lost contact with ground control.

In the stunning music video made by Matt Kepler, Lizcano tells the story of Major Tom's forlorn widow, as she attempts to grapple with the loss of her partner. Supported by string accompaniment from Daedalus Quartet and interpretive dance performed by Almanac Dance Circus Theatre, Lizcano beautifully articulates life, loss, grief and resilience.
