

Hello,

at first glance the Summer holidays are not the typical time to learn - after all it's all about resting from learning :) But if you take a different perspective, which we strongly encourage you to do, the circumstances seem perfect: work pace slows down, the day is longer and your body is rested - in such conditions your learning will surely be more productive!

That's why don't set it aside, when you can pick it up straightaway - plan your exams for second half of the year, book them and start learning! We will be strongly rooting for you and help you as much as possible in the best way possible - with the best study support materials you will find below.

Plan your two upcoming exam sessions!

September exam entry

29 July is the standard exam entry deadline for September ACCA Exam Session.

December exam entry
