

Disney+ now available on Philips Ambilight Android TVs in Latest European Countries

Amsterdam, April 7, 2020 –The Disney+ application is now available on a broad range of Philips Android TVs - with their unique immersive Ambilight technology - in Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Italy, Spain, France, the UK and Ireland. The service has been already available and very successful in the Netherlands since autumn 2019.

Consumers with a 2020 model Philips Android TV will have access to the Disney+ streaming service directly via the Smart TV homepage and the Disney+ app. Owners of earlier Philips Android TV models can find the new Disney+ app in the Google Play™ app store and add it to their favorites*.

With over 500 films, 26 exclusive original movies and series and thousands of television episodes from Disney, Pixar, Marvel, Star Wars, National Geographic and more, Disney+ is the new streaming home for some of the world's most beloved stories.

Philips Ambilight Smart TVs with Android TV offer a faster and more fluent TV and entertainment experience and provide access a broad range of Android apps via Google Play™, including Disney+.

Philips TV continues to be the leading brand for the Android TV OS and since 2019 Philips TV has also included both Dolby Vision™ and Dolby Atmos™ throughout the full Philips Android TV line up. The unique combination of Dolby Vision™, Dolby Atmos™ and Philips TV's Ambilight feature will offer viewers one of the most immersive and cinematic presentations of Disney+ content.

* Philips TV customers can also manually change the order of Apps on their Android TV homepage
